

Attention: Read the following very carefully before signing as it affects your legal rights. If the participant is under the age of 18, the following must be filled in:

My child, _____

(print full name), is participating in this program put on by the KW Youth Basketball Association (YBA). In consideration for the YBA allowing my child to participate in the program,

I, _____

(print full name), his/her parent/legal guardian, fully understand and agree to the following:

1. That participating in this program may involve personal risk of damage or injury and I agree to assume all such risk and hereby release the YBA and its employees and agents from all claims for damage or injury to my child that might result from his/her participation in the program save and except those damages and injuries caused solely by the negligence of the YBA, its employees, volunteers or agents.
2. That I will be solely responsible for making arrangements for the picking up of my child and will advise the YBA, in writing, if I have any concerns or if there are any special needs or arrangements.
3. That violation of the YBA's Code of Conduct by my child may result in a temporary or permanent banning from the program at the YBA's discretion.

By signing this form, I acknowledge having read, understood and agreed to the above conditions, release and waiver.
